AmeriCorps, often referred to as a domestic Peace Corps, places individuals within communities to commit a year of service (900 hours minimum). AmeriCorps is a real-life education and work experience wrapped into one. As a member, you will learn responsibility, teamwork, leadership, and many professional skills while gaining personal satisfaction from knowing you are making a real difference in your community.

This program places individuals with nonprofit organizations and governmental agencies across Wisconsin to build and strengthen volunteer programs. Individuals will receive professional training focused in volunteer management.

Participants will assist with such tasks as: recruiting, training and supervising volunteers; creating volunteer handbooks, and brochures; writing position descriptions; updating website content and coordinating social media. And have the opportunity to take on special projects of your own during the year.
